SPEAKERS – 2011

His Eminence Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke

Prefect of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura
 Spiritual Advisor of Eternal Life
 "Reform of the Reform"

His Eminence, while Archbishop of St. Louis, founded and built the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Crosse, WI, and dedicated this Shrine on July 31, 2008; he has served the Holy Catholic Church always with courage, charity, confidence and Truth. His Excellency was the first American to be appointed (by Benedict XVI) Prefect of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura, and most recently was elevated as a new member of the College of Cardinals by His Holiness Benedict XVI (November 20th, 2010).

Most Reverend Joseph E. Kurtz

Archbishop of Louisville
 Vice President of USCCB
 Chairman of Bishops' Committee on Marriage
 Saturday: Main Celebrant of Mass;
 Homilist

Archbishop Kurtz was ordained a priest for the diocese of Allentown, PA in 1972. His works have covered many areas in diocesan administration, serving on many committees and boards. In 2007 His Excellency was installed as Archbishop of Louisville, and in November 2010, was elected Vice-President of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops.

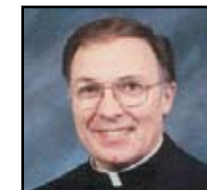

Reverend Edmund F. McCaffrey, Obl.S.B.

President, Eternal Life
 Spiritual Advisor of Eternal Life
 Master of Ceremonies

Father Edmund has, from the beginning, been an integral part of the birth, growth and development of Eternal Life. Along with Father John Hardon, S.J. and the extraordinary layman William Smith, Father has taught and trained the laity, instructed and encouraged in the Faith, offered the holiest of Masses and served faithfully and conscientiously through many years of conferences, meetings and endless opportunities to advance the Faith, encourage deep devotion to the Holy and Immaculate Mother of God, and inspire all to the greatest respect and love for Jesus in His Eucharistic Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. Thanks be to God for the great gift of Father Edmund, now serving as President of Eternal Life.

Reverend Roger Arnsparger

Diocese of Charlotte,
 Director of Eucharistic Congress,
 Vicar of Education,
 Spiritual Director of Eternal Life
 "Restoring the Sacred Liturgy;
 Building a Culture of Holiness and Salvation"

Father Arnsparger, a native of Covington, KY, was ordained in 1977 (diocese of Covington) and since 1999 has served in the diocese of Charlotte, NC, and is coordinator of the extraordinary annual Eucharistic Congress. Father is also Vicar of Education and is pastor of St. Michael's Parish. Always generous in giving of his time and talents in assisting the apostolate of Eternal Life, we are most grateful.

His Eminence Francis Cardinal Arinze

Prefect Emeritus of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments
 "The Centrality of the Sacred Liturgy in the Evangelizing Mission of the Church"

His Eminence was ordained in 1958, was consecrated as bishop in 1965, and in 1967 was named archbishop. In the Consistory of May 1985, His Holiness Pope John Paul II proclaimed him Cardinal. His Eminence is a member of several Congregations, including the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and serves in other important positions of leadership and responsibility. We are especially grateful to His Eminence for so generously taking part in the Church Teaches Forum on numerous occasions and sharing the fullness and beauty of the Faith with us.

His Excellency Bishop Daniel Thomas

Auxiliary of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia
 Titular Bishop of Bardstown
 "Christ and His Church: The Mystery of This Dialogue in the Roman Missal"

Bishop Thomas is a native of Philadelphia and was ordained in 1985 by John Cardinal Krol. His Excellency is currently auxiliary bishop of Philadelphia and titular bishop of Bardstown, KY. He was an official of the Congregation for Bishops in the Roman Curia, and served as spiritual director to the seminarians of the North American College. Returning to the United States, he was raised to the rank of Honorary Prelate of His Holiness. Bishop Thomas heads the Secretariat of Clergy in the Philadelphia archdiocesan curia; oversees St. Charles Borromeo and the Vocations Office, the Office for Communications and the diocesan newspaper.
